

Audrey N. Glickman

3548 Beechwood Boulevard, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15217-2767
412-401-4448 / audrey.glickman@gmail.com

The purpose of life is to serve.

Employment Highlights

Scenic Neighborhood Coordinator, Scenic Pittsburgh. Read, write, and advocate for zoning and other municipal, county, and state laws. Advocate for scenic environment and elimination of blight. Work with the history and goals of a municipality and participating in public process toward community buy-in.

Chief of Staff, Office of Pittsburgh City Council President Darlene M. Harris. Researched, wrote, negotiated, and advocated for legislation; also wrote correspondence, opinions, speeches, press releases, proclamations, and resolutions; represented the Councilwoman at board and community meetings; represented the Councilwoman on ACCBO board (distributing monies to CBOs); reviewed budgetary and legislative documentation; handled constituent concerns and issues; managed the staff; coordinated the calendar; organized meetings large and small; and maintained records.

Police/Domestic Violence Project Manager, Office of Pittsburgh City Council President Doug Shields, arranged Post-Agenda Hearing on Domestic Violence, Policing and the Community. Coordinated with nonprofits requesting original hearing, brought in national, statewide, and local experts to testify; researched and developed strategy. Outcome was presentation by widely diverse individuals and ultimate passage of strong Police/DV legislation.

Deputy Finance Director, People for Peduto. Pittsburgh mayoral campaign, winter 2007.

Managing Director, Mary Miller Dance Company. Position included, among other responsibilities, all aspects of development; marketing/PR; website design, creation and maintenance; finance; and communications for this modern dance company established in 1985.

Director of Finance and Operations, Pittsburgh Musical Theater. Responsible for all finances, payroll matters and personnel matters; creating, negotiating and monitoring all contracts with labor unions, insurers, vendors, rightsholders, lessees, lessors, and independent contractors; and overseeing the management and maintenance of daily operations of the company.

Training Coordinator, Buchanan Ingersoll Professional Corporation. Position included managing a staff of legal secretaries, arranging ongoing training for and educational assistance to members and employees of the firm, coordination of new training requirements as needed.

Legal Secretary, Buchanan Ingersoll Professional Corporation. Corporate finance and securities, banking, trademark, intellectual property, banking and bankruptcy law. Responsibilities included drafting and preparing contracts, securities filings, correspondence, and other documents; reproduced graphic art for trademark registration applications, wrote for and assisted in layout and preparation of monthly inhouse publication, Staff Representative to Internal Communications Committee, and ongoing assistance to staff on computer usage.

Media Production Assistant, Ketchum MacLeod & Grove Advertising. Supported entire Media Planning Section, and portion of Research Section. Completed inhouse training program in media planning. Additionally served as swing camera operator and lighting consultant for audio/visual department.

Proofreader, [Western] Pennsylvania Health & Fitness Magazine and Pittsburgh NOW! Several years for publications of Spence Publishing, Inc.

Provisional Positions. Various freelance and interim positions.

Organizational Affiliation Highlights

Democratic Committee Female Member, 15-2.

Secretary/Treasurer, VoteAllegheny. Also previously Secretary/Treasurer of statewide VotePA. Nonpartisan organizations advocating safe, secure, accessible, recountable, voter-verified voting systems, and active participation by all citizens in the electoral process (www.VoteAllegheny.org).

Co-Chair, Gertrude Stein Political Club of Greater Pittsburgh. Multipartisan organization advocating in electoral politics for LGBT and Women's Rights by working with candidates and elected officials who are committed to helping us secure those rights (www.gertrudesteinclub.org).

Member, Greenfield Community Association, Transportation and Development Committee. CBO active in strong, diverse community.

Board of Trustees, Tree of Life * Or L'Simcha Congregation. Conservative congregation dating to 1864.

Board of Directors, Squirrel Hill Historical Society. Active presenting and preserving organization.

Prior Organizational Affiliations:

Board of Directors, Mary Miller Dance Company. Nonprofit modern dance company.

Board of Directors, SchoolTime Theatre, Inc. Nonprofit professional educational theatre company (Actors' Equity union TYA contract).

Producing Member, Theatre Committee, JCC of Pittsburgh. Theatrical production, full-scale. Created a manual for producing shows.

Founding Member, Allegheny County Transit Council. Citizen's advisory committee to the Board of the Port Authority of Allegheny County. Served as Secretary, member of Executive Committee.

Representative Member, Greater Pittsburgh Arts Alliance. Advocacy for arts organizations, artists in the Pittsburgh area. Represented the Mary Miller Dance Company.

Officer and Member, Various University Organizations.

Various Political Campaigns. When not yet old enough to vote, George McGovern's Presidential campaign lit the flame prompting me to stand on street corners, handing out literature and promoting voter participation and progressive attitudes. Have volunteered on innumerable campaigns ever since.

Education

B.A., Theatrical Production, University of Pittsburgh, minor in English Writing and Performance Theatre.

Diploma, Digital Design, Art Institute of Pittsburgh.

Graduate of fellowship program of the Center for Progressive Leadership, 2007.